10th July 2022

Fourth Sunday After Trinity

Deuteronomy 30.9–14, Colossians 1.1–14, Luke 10.25–37.

Dear Friends,

The love spoken about in each of the scripture passages is not one of fluffy, 'lovey dovey' sentiment but one of purposeful action in the care and welfare of others. As God's agents in the world, we are called to bring God's grace filled healing and wholeness to those in need. Sometimes we too find ourselves in need of help and support. It is in those moments we learn to drop our pride, lower our defences, and allow others to minister to us, just as the 'left for dead' Jew did with the Samaritan.

You remain in my prayers and I hope you continue to keep safe and well.

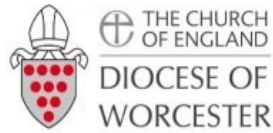

Please continue to check the website for updates and news in the Flyfords.

If you would like a call from me during the week, please let Caroline know on; 07514 901344 or email flyfordfamilies@gmail.com or you can call me direct.

*Blessings,
Emma*

We realise some people feel safer in continuing to wear a mask in church although doing so is no longer mandatory in any setting. This is quite understandable and I hope all continue to do what they feel is right for them.

Thank you.

Now that internal repairs have been completed, Drakes Broughton has reopened.
We hope to resume online services there at some point in the future.
