The Sixth Sunday After Trinity

Amos 7: 7-15. Ephesians 1.3-14. Mark 6.14-29

Dear Friends,

The book of Mark was written to inspire the little Christian communities who were experiencing hardship and persecution.

Although living here we may not experience such persecution as violent as back then or even in other parts of the world today, we too can sometimes feel disillusioned and weary in our small communities. At such times we need to remind ourselves that our reward is not about being successful or triumphant, but through being secure in the knowledge that each one of us is faithfully serving God's purpose in the world. If you do not feel that security then perhaps God is whispering to you to talk more to him, to discover his call on your life and go out into the community as one of God's holy people, set apart from the common ambitions society thrusts upon us and live as Christ did, loving God and all people. My hope is for a deepening of prayer in all our communities as we seek guidance from Jesus in our discipleship.

You remain in my prayers and I hope you continue to keep safe and well.

Please continue to check this website for updates and news in the Flyfords.
