21st August 2022

Tenth Sunday After Trinity

Isaiah 58.9b–14, Hebrews 12.18–29, Luke 13.10–17.

Dear Friends,

The message of these passages for us today is an invitation to examine our lives in light of this law of love by considering how we speak and act toward others, especially to those in need.

When we live out the spirit of the law, take time for a Sabbath day and share this hope with others, then we too can rejoice like the crowd in the synagogue because, as is written in Hebrews verse 8, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, by which we offer to God an acceptable worship with reverence and awe.

You remain in my prayers and I hope you continue to keep safe and well.

Please continue to check the website for updates and news in the Flyfords.

Lunchtime Learning

This autumn the Diocese are introducing a new monthly programme of events under the umbrella title "Lunchtime Learning". It's intended to share something of the wealth of resources within the Diocese between all our parishes. Anyone who is interested in a particular month's topic is welcome to attend. Each session will run from 12.30 – 1.30pm midweek. As it's on Zoom you should bring your own lunch! The speaker will introduce the subject for 20 – 30 minutes and then there will be a time of discussion.

We very much look forward to seeing you.

We realise some people feel safer in continuing to wear a mask in church although doing so is no longer mandatory in any setting. This is quite understandable and I hope all continue to do what they feel is right for them.

Thank you.

Now that internal repairs have been completed, Drakes Broughton has reopened.
We hope to resume online services there at some point in the future.

Morning Prayer continues to be streamed each Wednesday at 10am from the Rectory.
