The Baptism of Christ

9th January 2022

Isaiah 43.1-7, Acts 8.14-17, Luke 3.15 -17,21,22.

Dear Friends,

This Sunday, we celebrate the Baptism of Christ. We celebrate not only the beginning of Jesus' ministry on earth, but also the Holy Spirit descending on Him, declaring 'You are my Son, the Beloved'. At this point of baptism, the crowds publicly recognise Jesus as the One filled with the spirit. The same Holy Spirit who at every Christian baptism is celebrated as making and revealing the children of God. Yes, even at your baptism, God called you precious, honoured, and beloved. In the giving of the gift of the Holy spirit, God reaffirms His statement; I am with you. I am with you as you pray. I will help you with your words, your thoughts, and feelings. I am with you even when you do not call upon me. I am with you even when you don't even think of me. I am with you and I will not let you go.

Open your heart and you will see God is with you, guiding you in even your most difficult times.

You remain in my prayers and I hope you continue to keep safe and well.
